DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 11-19, and 21-23 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The amendment has obviated the rejection for Claims 21-23 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The rejection for Claims 11-19, 21-23 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement is withdrawn upon reconsideration in view of the amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The enablement rejection for Claims 11-19 is withdrawn upon reconsideration in view of the amendment.

The rejection is maintained for claims 21-23 for reasons of record. The specification is enabling only for the method of using the inventive compound to ameliorate a neuroexcitability disorder selected from the group consisting of anxiety and seizures. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

Applicants argue that since the compound of claim 11-15 is allowable, the method of using the allowable compound would also be allowable. Indeed the method drawn to the allowable compound would be allowable if the 112 first paragraph enablement rejection were overcome.

Art Unit: 1625

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 11-19 are allowed.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
